If you require this information in an alternative format please contact the organiser of your event.

Code of behaviour for public events

You should ensure that you read this Code carefully as your confirmation that you will participate in an event constitutes your acceptance of the Code.

Attendees at events at the Scottish Parliament are expected to:

- Enter and leave the building quietly
- Switch off mobile phones, pagers and other electronic devices
- Obey instructions given by parliamentary officials
- Not leave baggage and personal items unattended
- Wear delegate badges at all times when these are supplied
- Conduct themselves with consideration for the safety and comfort of other guests
- Eat, drink or smoke in designated areas only

On arrival

Please arrive via the Public Entrance unless your letter or invitation specifically mentions using one of our other entrances. The Public Entrance is accessed via Horse Wynd.

Invitation/ confirmation letter/ticket

Please retain your invitation/confirmation letter/ticket and bring it with you to the event as these will form part of the security procedures and you will be asked for them on arrival.

Queues at the entrance

If your event is on during the day, there may be a queue of people waiting to get into the building. Please follow any signage for event attendees or make your way to the top of the queue and let staff know that you are here for an event. Please remember though that the queue may just be other delegates for your event.

Security

Security procedures will be in place for all persons entering the building. This includes an airport style check.

Evacuation of the building

Evacuation procedures will be outlined at the beginning of every event. Should it be necessary to evacuate the building, Security personnel will provide instructions and assistance.

Evacuation for people with additional requirements

If you will require additional assistance in the event of an evacuation, prior to your attendance please contact:
